

INVOLVEMENT WITH THE UNIVERSITY COMMUNITY

Katie Aufderhaar worked in 2005 on a project dealing with post-communist federalism and its impact on ethnic violence in the region.

Tom Coyle worked as an intern in spring of 2005.

Barbara Paoletti (center) worked as an intern with Moldovan Ambassador Cieslav Ciobanu and helped on projects with US Ambassador John Stewart.

US MCIA Quantico, 2004: Holly Slavin and Lindsay Blankenship joined Ashley Derrick on the Police Forces of the World Project.

Lloyd Pierson and Alesha Kelly Brown worked with us in researching Central Asian issues in 2005.

Rachael Harris, who worked with us on Islamic projects in 2003, made a presentation on the work she did in Uzbekistan in 2004.

Elaine DeIorio is a junior at the University of Florida where she is majoring in Political Science. After completion of her undergraduate and graduate work, Elaine is planning on entering the Homeland Security/Strategic Intelligence field. Elaine was home schooled as a child and earned both her high school diploma and associates degree in Political Science by age 17. She has attended the Strategic Intelligence Camp at Patrick Henry College in 2006 and other intelligence oriented conferences. Elaine is a political activist who frequently contacts her Representatives and Senators on issues of importance, writing opinion articles for the local newspaper, and recently worked tirelessly on a State Senate candidate's campaign. She is currently running for the executive board of the Young Republicans of Marion County. For hobbies, Elaine plays piano at the church she attends and is a Civil War reenactor and living historian with the Hardy's Brigade, 2nd Battalion, 4th Florida , Company G, Infantry Regiment, the Marion Rifle Guards. She has completed a paper on immigration which appears in the research section of this web site.

